CAPITAL GOSSIP AND PROVINCIAL NEWS

Work Of Alberta Provincial Police

The annual report of the Alberta Provincial Police for the year 1921, recently published, contains much valuable information relative to the activities of the body.

The strength of the force, as at the end of December, was 9 officers, 176 non-commissioned officers and men, 65 horses, 16 automobiles, 2 power boats, 7 bloodhounds.

In criminal offences there were 6851 cases entered, 123 awaiting trial, with 5719 convictions obtained, giving a percentage of 85 in convictions.

The total number of prisoners handled by the force during the year was 3,491.

The number of cases against women was 51, an increase on the previous year. Thirty-four convictions were obtained. Forty were either withdrawn or dismissed, and there were seven awaiting trial.

Offences against property, ordinary thefts, accounts for 600 cases entered, against 624 in 1920, a decrease of 24 cases. Four hundred and forty-four convictions were obtained, 130 cases were withdrawn or dismissed, and there were 26 awaiting trial.

There were 83 cases of horse and cattle stealing entered this year, 40 convictions obtained, eight cases dismissed, and six important cases awaiting trial, an increase of four cases on 1920.

During the year the force handled 261 insane persons—91 females and 170 males.

There were 1362 cases entered under the Liquor Act and 1266 convictions obtained, 95 dismissals and withdrawals, and one case awaiting trial. The special liquor squad accounted for 291 cases, obtaining 264 convictions, 1071 cases were handled by the uniform members of the force, and 1002 convictions obtained. This shows a decrease of 117 cases handled by this force as compared with 1920.

The decrease is due to the fact that after February 1921, the different city police bodies handled the Liquor Act cases in the cities.

Schools Of Agriculture Open October 31st

The Agricultural Schools of this Province will be opened for the winter course on October 31st. The enrollment of pupils is progressing and it is expected that there will be an increase in attendance over 1921. On the 17th and 18th the principals of the different schools, Mr. S. H. Gandier, of Vernon, Mr. F. S. Grisdale, of Olds, Mr. J. C. Hooper, of Claresholm, and Mr. O. S. Longman, of Raymond, were in Edmonton and attended a conference, at which the work of the schools and the plans for the winter session were discussed with Departmental Officials.

Mr. H. A. Craig, Deputy Minister of Agriculture, and Mr. J. Ross, Deputy Minister of Education, attended the meeting.

Chicago Seed Grain Exhibit

The Department of Agriculture and the Faculty of Agriculture of the University of Alberta have arranged to have an exhibit of Alberta seed grain shown at the Chicago International Exposition which will be held December 2nd to 9th.

The grains for exhibit will be collected at three points in the province and those desiring to enter should send their grain to one of the following: Prof. Cutler, Faculty of Agriculture, University of Alberta, Edmonton; G. M. Stewart, Dominion Seed Branch, Calgary, or Don. Bark, C.P.R. Irrigation, Brooks. The grains will be examined and selections made of those best fitted to enter the competition. Parties sending grain to the above addresses should also write to Prof. Cutler advising him of the class in which they desire to have their exhibit entered.

The shipment of the selected grains to Chicago, the passing of the U.S. customs, and the placing of the exhibits at the show will be looked after by the Department of Agriculture. The express charges to Chicago, if any of the exhibitors desire the samples returned this would be done at the exhibitor's expense. A circular has been prepared at the University of Alberta.

School Fairs For 1923

An important conference of officials of the Department of Agriculture and the Department of Education, interested in the work of the Alberta School Fairs, was held in the government buildings on Tuesday.

The school fair movement has become very popular, and very substantial success attended this year's fairs. The conference discussed ways and means for improvements. There is complete co-operation between the two departments in encouraging expansion along the lines of education which is brought into prominence through the activities of the school fairs. The prize lists and circulars regarding the 1923 fairs will be issued and put in circulation before the end of the present year.

Will Visit Peace River District

H. A. Craig, deputy minister of agriculture, and S. G. Carlyle, provincial live stock commissioner, expect to leave this week for the Peace River country, when they will address a number of meetings.

The dates for the meetings at the Beaver Lodge Farm are slated for October 25 and 26, and at Grand Prairie there will be meetings on Saturday and Monday, October 28 and 30. Other meetings throughout the district have also been arranged where Mr. Craig and Mr. Carlyle will speak.

Provincial Poultry Shows

The annual Provincial Poultry show will be held in Edmonton on January 15th to 19th, 1923. The show will be under the management of W. J. Star's manager of the Edmonton exhibition. The following judges have been selected: Richard Oke, London, Ont.; G. G. Henderson, Hamilton; George Woods, Winnipeg; Jos. Shackleton, Edmonton; W. Stonehouse, Vancouver; I. H. Emerson, Lethbridge, and F. S. Bailey, Calgary.

The Provincial Poultry Branch in connection with the Department of Agriculture, is making a shipment of two carloads of Alberta eggs to London, England. There are indications that the London market may furnish an outlet for some of Alberta's surplus poultry products.

Government Settles Calgary Gas Dispute

In acting as mediators between the City of Calgary and the Canadian Western Natural Gas Co., and of effecting a settlement of the long drawn out fight between these two bodies the Alberta Government has rendered a sensible and efficient service.

Another discovery of iron ore is reported from the north country, this time from Hudson's Hope in the Peace River Block. The mineral resources of the north will one day make Alberta a "Hive of Industry" and will help Canada meet her financial obligations.

Advance announcements regarding Alberta's representation after the passing of the new redistribution bill at Ottawa, is that we will have sixteen members of the House of Commons instead of twelve.

Boy's Testimony Hazy

Liberty Joy, eight years, failed to contribute any material evidence for the prosecution. The little fellow exhibited an alert brain for his tender years, but his story was disjointed and halting. The doings of the Joy's were hazy, although he said his uncle Sam had slept at his father's house once. That night he slept at Rosie Villa's house. He knew nothing about the events which transpired on the presumed date of the mysterious passing of the uncle.

The court adjourned until 10 o'clock Tuesday morning with the mystery of the death of Sam Joy as far from solution as ever.

The woman claims to have kicked the man to death, yet the doctor's examinations failed to reveal any visible marks of violence. No trace of blood was found. The internal organs were intact. The prosecution, in the face of the persistent and insistent declaration of the woman that she killed the man, withdrew the murder charge, replacing it with one of manslaughter—no charging that she inflicted the death injuries by violence, but rather by neglect, in not supplying the food and medicine necessary to at least prolong life.

New evidence introduced concerned the marks of abuse on the person of Mary Joy, the accused, certain witnesses testifying that Mary Joy had declared that her husband had inflicted on her the injuries which she claimed to have killed in defence of her honor.

As the case stood at the noon hour adjournment the death of Sam Joy is as profound a mystery as ever. There was no direct evidence produced by the crown to prove that the man died of neglect, while any suggestion of such offense against the prisoners in the box was stubbornly rebutted by H. Ostlund, K.C., chief counsel for the defense.

Lucia Marcelle said Sam Joy boarded at her house. She knew him in Italy. On July 25 Sam did not appear for his meals and she went to Nick's to ascertain the cause. She was told by Nick that he had given Sam money to go away with. She saw Mary Joy on July 31 when Mary told her "he was not sick, and what I've got come when Nick hit me." In the home was Nick, Nick's wife and Sam Villa. They were praying. She did not know their religion. She asked for Sam and was told he was outside.

"I can't swear to that."

"Did she say: 'I turned from woman to tigress'?"

"Yes, she said that."

A. Ferguson, Blairmore undertaker told of preparing the body of Sam Joy for burial. He considered, when questioned by the defense counsel, that it had been dead about a week, and that it was swollen. He told of an examination following its being examined.

Doctor on Stand

Dr. T. N. Beaman, Bellevue, was called to view a body at Hillcrest some time between the latter part of July and August 1. He suggested that it be buried. He made no particular examination on that date, but later made an autopsy, when the body was in an advanced state of decay, and that decomposition precluded any positive indication of wounds. The vital organs were intact and normal. Questioned by Mr. McDonald, witness described the body as that of a man about 198 pounds, muscular, and around 5 feet, 11 inches tall.

"Was the decomposition on the surface only?"

"Yes, on the surface."

"How long do you think the man had been dead?"

"A number of days. It is impossible to state exactly."

Mr. Ostlund subjected the witness to a grueling cross-examination, in which the medical man reaffirmed his evidence submitted at the preliminary that the man might have been dead a week or two weeks.

Found the Body

Sergeant Scott of the A. P. P. Frank detachment, told of going to the Joy home on Aug. 1, finding the door locked. On being admitted, he found the body of the dead Sam Joy, lying on a bed. Mortification had been in progress for some time. There was a strong stench in the house. The body was nude, and the clothes of the man, entered as an exhibit, were lying on the floor of the death chamber. There was no blood or corruption on the clothes or on the floor.

Clothes Produced

At this point the clothing claimed to have been worn by the accused woman, Mary Joy, when the alleged assault was made, was introduced. The sergeant fished them out of a sack one by one, but he was at a loss to name the various articles comprising the miniature feminine wardrobe.

On cross-examination by Mr. Ostlund, the witness admitted that Mrs. Joy had confessed to him that she murdered Sam Joy because he tried to take advantage of her. To save her honor she told him she literally kicked the man to death on the floor of her bed chamber. The witness was asked by the learned counsel to examine the clothing of the woman and tell the jury if they were torn.

This the witness did, explaining that the bloomers, undershirt, apron and other articles bore evidence of having been torn.

Liberty Joy, eight years, failed to contribute any material evidence for the prosecution. The little fellow exhibited an alert brain for his tender years, but his story was disjointed and halting. # THE EMPRESS THEATRE CURRENT ATTRACTIONS

CLAIRE ADAMS' FIRST BIG HIT

If Claire Adams, the Benjamin B. Hampton star, were to insist that every exhibitor should put her full name in electric lights in front of the theatre during the showing of "When Romance Rides," Hampton's latest production from Zane Grey's novel, "Wildfire," released by Goldwyn, coming to the Empress theatre for two days beginning Wednesday next, it is probable that practically all the bigger electric companies would present her with stock.

Her full name is Claire Beryl de Vere Nassau Adams, three of which names are prominent in Burke's Peerage, the English "Who's Who." Miss Adams was born in Winnipeg, Manitoba. She was educated in private schools of Canada and London, her parents for a while living in the latter place when she was a child. Returning to Canada she graduated and post-graduated from St. Hilda's College, Calgary. Public recitals and college drama led to her appearance in a Winnipeg stock company, but family interference stopped her. When the war broke out she tried to go across as a Red Cross nurse, but on account of a spell of illness was put at training in Grace Hospital, Detroit.

At the end of a year her health broke down and she went home determined to become a motion picture actress, and persuaded her family to move to New York. Here she played small parts in pictures for a short time.

There came a time when the government put on a big Red Cross picture, and her combined screen talent and nursing experience won Miss Adams the leading part. Her work attracted the attention of Benjamin B. Hampton, who sent for her from California. She was given a trial in Zane Grey's production, "Riders of the Dawn," and won a contract.

Since then she has appeared in leading roles in many Benjamin B. Hampton all-star photoplays.

"Would Wake Up Screaming"

"The Least Sudden Noise or Loud Talking Would Startle Him."

"Up to the age of eight, my boy was a strong, healthy lad, full of life and energy. While playing leap frog one day with some boys of his own age, and, while in a stooped position, a big boy jumped on his back and in falling my boy caught his foot in an iron grating and dislocated his hip. The pain was so great that he fainted and the other boys were so frightened they ran away. For hours he suffered terrible pain and when found and brought home was very weak, with his thigh and leg swollen twice its size. The doctor set the bone but the pain and exposure were too much for the poor boy and he became unconscious. A high fever set in and for weeks he lay between life and death raving for hours at a stretch. One day he opened his eyes and murmured 'Mother,' but this was the only word he could utter he was so weak, but I knew the worst was over. He got stronger but for months was in a nervous condition. The least sudden noise or loud talking would startle him and he would begin trembling. He was quite lame and the swelling still remained. The doctor gave him a tonic and told me to rub the leg with olive oil. This reduced the swelling and took away the lameness, but the nervousness remained. The poor child would wake in the night screaming at the top of his voice. The doctor gave him several different tonics but they were no use. I found a circular about Carnol and it seemed so different from other tonics I had heard of, that I thought I would get a bottle. Three bottles were all that was needed to make my boy like his own self again. It is hard to convince my friends that the change in him now is entirely due to Carnol. Of course I still have to watch him and give him Carnol occasionally but I know that he will soon be as strong again as ever he was."

Mrs. P. J. Montreal.

Carnol is sold by your druggist, and if you can conscientiously say, after you have tried it, that it hasn't done you any good, return the empty bottle to him and he will refund your money. 2-622

FAMOUS JOCKEY RIDES FOR FILM

Tod Sloan, the famous little jockey whose riding attracted the attention of half the crowned heads of Europe has lost his first big race! And, as if to add insult to injury, fate chose a woman as the agent through which to administer defeat to the greatest rider of them all.

The eventful race is a feature of Benjamin B. Hampton's big production of "When Romance Rides" from Zane Grey's novel, "Wildfire," released by Goldwyn, which may be seen at the Empress theatre on Wednesday next for two days. The sportsman-like Sloan insists that though the race

PINCHER CREEK PIONEER SUCCUMBS

Pincher Creek, Oct. 24.—The death of Mr. R. Duthie occurred at his home here this morning. Mr. Duthie had been ill for a number of weeks suffering from sciatica and the end was not unexpected, but nevertheless his loss is greatly regretted in the community in which he has so long been familiar. He was one of Pincher Creek's real old timers and a pioneer in the cattle industry.

AUTUMN COLORS

What wondrous shades the forest show.

All down the misty autumn days, When nature's brilliant colors glow Bright through the purple-tinted haze,

With flaming scarlet, gold and green, With crimson red and russet brown,

And every magic shade and sheen Upon the forests leafy crown?

The gorgeous blaze of colors look As though the elves, on wanton breeze, was run for picture purposes only he actually was beaten.

Had torn the Ink Man's color book. And tossed its pages o'er the trees.

"I have delighted in this opportunity to do picture work, partly because it brings me back into close association with fine horses, and partly because it provides some of the old fascination and excitement that went with my track experience. This race for instance, was far more dangerous than any of the hardfought races that involved big money during the days when racing was one of the greatest of American sports."

NEW TYPE OF WESTERN DRAMA IS ZANE GREY'S "WHEN ROMANCE RIDES"

The most popular novel by Zane Grey, the country's most popular living novelist, "Wildfire," has been picture-ized by Benjamin B. Hampton for Goldwyn release under the title of "When Romance Rides." Mr. Hampton is emphatic in his declaration that "When Romance Rides" is his best production up to date, whether or not it shall prove to be his most popular film. It is coming to the Empress theatre next Wednesday for two days.

The producer claims for this photoplay that it is a new type of modern western drama, for in it the western flannel shirts alternate with the Tuxedo, the riding habit with the décolleté gown, and picturesque rugged exteriors with elaborate and artistic interiors.

"When Romance Rides" contains all the lively incident, the human, everyday characterizations and the beautiful scenic backgrounds which have proved such a powerful magnet to picture patrons in previous Zane Grey pictures. It contains one of the most thrilling horse races ever staged and as a climax, the heroine is seen, tied face down on the back of a fear-maddened horse recently reclaimed from a wild state, riding towards a precipice. The photography for this Mazeppa-like ride and for the great horse race at the rodeo is a fine example of how emotion-stirring mer-motif photography can become.

Associated with Mr. Hampton in the direction of "When Romance Rides" were Eliot Howe, Jean Hersholt and Charles O. Rask. Robert Odell was the art director and Ferdinand Pinney Earle and Ellsworth Grey are responsible for the art titles.

The cast is a large and capable one and is headed by Claire Adams, the beautiful young Canadian actress who entered films but a few seasons ago, Carl Gantvoort, the recruit from grand opera, and Jean Hersholt, the young Danish actor who assisted in the direction. These three players are featured. Other important members of the cast are Frank Hayes, Charles Arling, Harry L. Van Meter, Tod Sloan, the country's most famous jockey, Mary Jane Irving, charming child actress, Walter Perkins, Babe London and others. E. Richard Schayer prepared the continuity.

Horses valued at more than $200,000 appear in "When Romance Rides" and two of them share in the acting honors—the beautiful stallion which impersonates the Wildfire of the novel and the doped horse, Sage Brush. A Belgian police dog, Rin-tin-tin will also captivate every person who likes dogs.

For those who like thrill after thrill in their screen fare, liberally interspersed with comedy, "When Romance Rides" will prove a feast of delight. Its love story is fresh and alluring and every character made real. The photography is unsurpassed.

Don't forget to wear a poppy on Armistice Day, Saturday, November 11th.

LOCAL & PERSONAL

Mrs. J. D. Matheson will not receive on Friday of this week.

Mrs. A. Watson was in Lethbridge for a few days last week, visiting friends.

Ernie Haug motored from Waterton Lakes on Saturday and spent the week end in town.

Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Beere, formerly of Macleod, but now of Calgary, are the guests of friends in town for a few days.

Mrs. J. H. Stockton is spending a few days in Taber, where she is the guest of Mrs. H. Christison, (nee Miss Jimmy Stockton).

Miss Gay, of Honan, China, who was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. E. Gardiner, while in Macleod last week-end, left the beginning of the week to continue her addresses to the Members of St. Andrew's Church, to the towns west of here.

Albert Swinarton, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Swinarton, who suffered a gunshot wound four weeks ago Tuesday, was taken to the Galt Hospital, Lethbridge, on Wednesday of last week to undergo an X-Ray examination. The Rays showed two pieces of lead from the bullet in the wound, which were removed, and hopes are now entertained for the boy's speedy recovery. Mrs. Swinarton accompanied her son to Lethbridge and is remaining there pending Albert's father recuperation.

The tea given by the English Church, at the home of Mrs. G. A. Kennedy on Wednesday afternoon, was a success considering the day. In spite of the heavy wind a large number of people found their way to Mrs. Kennedy's prettily decorated table and enjoyed a dainty tea. In the evening a whist drive was held in the Parish Hall where some seventy people sat down and played progressive whist. The first prizes were awarded to Mrs. L. Steadman and G. Brooks-Avey while Mrs. Cecil Altham and Ted Davis carried off the consolations. About $40.00 was realized from both events which was given towards the buying of a new carpet for the church.

Commissioner Bryan, of the A.P.P. Edmonton, was a Macleod visitor on Wednesday of this week. He will return here on Friday to attend the organization meeting of a Macleod branch of the Ex-Mounted Police Association which will be held on Friday evening in the Queen's Hotel. Commissioner Bryan will also be present at the depositing of the 191st Battalion colors, which ceremony will take place in the Methodist Church on Sunday, October 29th. Lieut.-Col. W. C. Bryan requests all members of the 191st Battalion resident in the Macleod district or elsewhere to parade in uniform at the Macleod Armories at 10 a.m. on Sunday, Oct. 29th. Any member of the battalion desiring to borrow uniforms may do so on application to Major Barnes.

RUSHING TO GIRL'S AID DANGEROUS SOMETIMES

Having a pretty girl seek protection from an annoyance in a public cafe; following her to a fashionable beach resort and subsequently being arrested for a theft he thought she had committed, were some of the experiences encountered by Herbert Rawlinson as the hero of "The Black Bag" which comes to the Empress theatre on Friday and Saturday. The picture is filled to the brim with mystery thrills and romance. Stuart Paton, the director, has packed it so full of excitement that the most "picture-wise" spectator is kept on the edge of his seat until the final scene.

Rawlinson, as an energetic young business man, goes to New York for a mildly interesting vacation. He is drawn into a combination of circumstances that pit him against a band of clever and ruthless criminals. He seeks to aid the girl with whom he has fallen in love, even after he suspects that she has stolen a diamond necklace. He risks his life to recover the jewels from the crooks who have been following the girl and for his trouble is arrested as one of the thieves.

Paton maintains the dramatic suspense of the story to the very last.

NOTICE

A public meeting will be held in the Town Hall on Friday October 27th, at 8 p. m., when a representative from the Provincial Institute of Technology and Art will be present and endeavour to organize evening classes for the coming winter.

Suggested courses:— Commercial work, Dressmaking, Millinery, Steam Engineering, Motor Mechanics, and Electric Work.

The School Board will be glad to see a large attendance, especially of those interested in the classes.
E. Forster Brown, Secretary-Treasurer.

THE SPECULATORS IN MARKS

The sum lost on this continent by speculators in German marks runs over a billion dollars. Immense sums have also been lost in Russian rubles. But while the Russian ruble speculation was a haphazard affair, at both ends, the German mark scheme seems designed by the Berlin Government as a deliberate swindle of thousands and thousands of foreigners in all parts of the world. These speculators assumed that, as the German mark had been an integral monetary unit in international finance in better days, it would recover from the blast of war. They assumed that the German Gov-

SMOKE OLD CHUM

ernment would try to protect its exchange value, and that any restoration of value would give them handsome profits. But the mark was sold out on foreign markets, and now these speculators have currency that is nothing more than worthless "scraps of paper."

Since the end of the war, Germany has sold in the United States, South America, other parts of Europe, and even in Canada about $2,000,000,000 worth of marks. That is, in exchange for worthless paper she got gold credits of about two billions, and used this for her own purposes. The Berlin Government has paid, as reparations, 1,575,000,000 gold marks, or approximately $400,000,000, according to latest returns. On balance, she has outside credit of more than a billion and a half of dollars, yet claims that she has absolutely no resources left for further indemnity payments. No doubt Germany has bought a lot of raw materials abroad with the proceeds of sales of marks, and fortified herself industrially. But the irony of the situation is that even in France she has sold to French speculators about as much of German marks, valued in France, as she has paid to the French for reparations. The French people, as a whole, have paid for their own reparations. France has received 300,000,000 gold marks officially.

The hope of early recovery of the mark to a fair value is gone. Germany now has 200,000,000,000 of them outstanding, and the price of commodities within her borders is accordingly high. They are from five to twenty times as much as British and American prices based on a pre-war standard. If Germany begins a policy of reconstruction financially—after the issue of reparations is out of the way—the first step will have to be repudiation of this mass of paper, and the issuing of a new currency based on gold or assets having a stable value. The Allied peoples won the war, but lost fresh billions to the German schemers.

NATION BUILDERS

Every person who joins the Red Cross at the time of the campaign to be held in Alberta during the week of November 5 to 11 will be helping to make Canadian citizens and to build a greater Canada. This is the fact that is emphasized in a twenty-four page pamphlet which has been issued by the Provincial Headquarters of the Society at Calgary.

Every person in Alberta should secure one of these booklets and learn for themselves just what the organization is doing. It points out the great work that is being done in the many different ways undertaken and any person cannot but help but become interested in this Society if they will only take the trouble to make themselves acquainted with the work that is being carried on. This booklet is being sent out to the Red Cross Locals in all parts of the province and also to the campaign committees. The Provincial Branch would like to see every person have one so if you are in a district where there is not a local of the Society or where a committee has not been organized write to Provincial Headquarters in the O'Sullivan Block, Calgary, and one will be sent you at once.

The work of the Society as a nation builder is outlined and among the various other activities told about are: Immigration Service, Relief Abroad, Relief at Home, Our War Legacy, The Children's Home at Brickburn, the Disaster Service, Nursing and Hospital Service, Health Activities, the Junior Red Cross and the Children's Hospital.

Red Cross Notes

Every person who becomes or continues to be a member of the Alberta Division of the Canadian Red Cross when the call comes during the Membership and Finance Campaign to be held from November 5 to 11, will be doing his or her part to help it carry on with greater effort and vigor its work for the improvement of health, the prevention of disease, and mitigation of suffering. This is the peace programme of the Society and it has emerged from the pioneer work in this connection with an enviable record. The development of the work, as it should be, is now being hampered by lack of funds.

This is the reason that the organization is appealing for public support during the campaign next month. Every person in Alberta who is financially able to, should at least become a member of the Society. Those who feel that they ought to do more will have an opportunity to make a donation over and above the regular membership fee during the week of the drive.

Any person who is familiar with the work that the Society is doing in Alberta has nothing but the highest of commendation to offer and every one of these citizens are giving the organization all the help possible. It has done a wonderful work in care of sick and crippled children through the Junior Red Cross; in organizing nursing and medical service in pioneer districts; in promoting social service in cities; in organizing disaster and emergency preparation; and in many other ways that might be mentioned. Enrol a member and help this good work.

A POLITICAL FOOTBALL

Rhodesia is not a slave in an Eastern market-place. Rhodesia is not even an insolvent begging the banker to take the country over. It is a small and independent people meditating their future course as they stand where two roads meet. Selling their country for a few millions is the last thing they are thinking about.

It is extremely regrettable that the Rhodesian problem is being hawked around the countryside in this fashion, and made the sport of predatory politics.

British Empire Press Comment

FARMER GILES

("London Morning Post")

The British farmer like the British soldier is only popular in war time. Then he is the saviour of his country. He is implored to plough up his meadows and put them under wheat; he is praised for his enterprise, his skill, his patriotism; and he is promised that his future will be secured by bounties and protection. But when the drums have ceased to roll and the submarines have disappeared; and the steamships bring down their freights and begin to roll in with cargoes of wheat and chilei meat from the ends of the earth, then the politician and the public look the other way when Farmer Giles comes along, and so far from offering him protection or bounties propose, as a reward for his good conduct in the war, that his last refuge of cattle breeding be invaded by the importation of Canadian stores.

TELEPHONES IN INDIA

("The Englishman" Calcutta)

India is not a country of great towns. Taking the ordinary census definition of the word "towns" as including "continuous collections of houses inhabited by not less than 5,000 persons", it has been found that 9.5 per cent of the population are urban dwellers, as compared with 78.1 per cent in England and Wales and 45.5 per cent in Germany. If the normal definition of the word city is accepted, as being a place with a population of not less than 100,000, then India possesses only 30 cities occupied by 7,075,782 people or only 2.2 per cent of the country's population. When it is further stated that only a very small proportion of these city dwellers consists of literates in any language, perhaps one man in every three, and that the women of India, furthermore, enjoy only a limited field of social intercourse, it may be realised how very small a section of India's inhabitants have any need for the telephone.

The magistrate, Alderman Edward Burke, of Pittston, had heard officially part of the wife's testimony when he shouted: "I am going to see how he likes it," and jumping over his desk ordered Anthony Azakas, the defendant, to stand up. As Azakas rose the magistrate hit him a blow over the left eye. The defendant fell but was ordered up again and received another judicial punch over the other eye which once more sent him to the floor. Azakas promised never to strike his wife again.

FREIGHT BURDENS

("Westminster Gazette")

Absurdly high transit charges have made it virtually impossible for many fruit and vegetable growers to market their goods. A charge of 35s. a ton for carrying potatoes from Lincoln to Cardiff does not help the Lincolnshire growers to feed the hungry population of South Wales. It is more than the selling price.

Mrs. Ker Seymour's Recital

The first of the Recitals given by Mrs. Ker-Seymour's pupils took place in the Oddfellows' Hall on Saturday afternoon, October 21st. Despite the lure of a perfect autumn day, a goodly number were present. Mr. Arthur Merriek, of Great Falls, Mont., came in and gave the young students a helpful talk on time, expression, pedal and the value of the constant study of scales. He graciously illustrated his talk by playing part of Rachmaninoff's "Prelude" and "The Chromatic Waltz," and both pupils and audience were charmed to hear this gifted artist again.

Programme:

POPPY DAY

Nearly every citizen in the province will be wearing a poppy on Armistice Day.

The cities and towns in the Province of Alberta are responding nobly to the call made upon them for assistance in the sale of poppies to be worn on Armistice Day. Judging by the number of orders received by the Headquarters of the Poppy Campaign Provincial Command, G.W.V.A., Oddfellows Block, Calgary, the sale of poppies this year will double that of last year, and it would seem that as the 11th of November approaches greater difficulty will be experienced by the staff in coping with the demand for poppies.

In districts where the G.W.V.A. is not organized, other associations, churches, etc., are asking to handle the campaign.

The smallest, yet one of the most important orders received at headquarters was from an old lady, the mother of one of the boys who we left "over there." This old lady writes that her son lies amid the crosses and she is desirous that she and her immediate friends should wear a poppy in honor on Armistice Day, and encloses $1.00 for poppies. This $1.00 order, received the same prompt attention as those for thousands of poppies, and the mother with her sons and daughters will wear a poppy in memory of their boy and others who made the supreme sacrifice.

JUDICIAL SALE NOTICE

PURSUANT to Judgment and Final Order for Sale in an action Number 19323 in the Supreme Court of Alberta, Judicial District of Calgary, there will be offered for sale with the approbation of the Court, by public auction, by R. Hackett, Auctioneer, at the Court House in the Town of Macleod, Alberta, on Saturday, the 18th day of November, 1922, at the hour of 2 o'clock in the afternoon, the following lands and premises, namely: The north west quarter of Section Thirty-three (33), in Township Nine (9), Range Twenty-four (24), west of the Fourth Meridian, excepting reservations as may appear in the existing Certificate of Title.

The plaintiff is informed that the above property is situated about three miles from the Village of Pearce, Alberta, and about thirteen miles from the Town of Macleod. It consists of approximately 160 acres of land, the soil being a chocolate loam with clay sub-soil. About 155 acres have been cultivated. There are no improvements on the land other than cultivation and 1½ miles of fencing.

Terms of sale: 10% cash at the time of sale, and the balance into Court as follows: 15% within 60 days without interest and the balance in three equal installments payable within six, twelve and eighteen months from the date of sale with interest at 8%, or at the option of the purchaser the whole may be paid within 60 days without interest.

The above property will be offered for sale subject to a sealed reserve bid fixed by the Court, and free from all encumbrances save taxes for the current year and the reservation and conditions contained in the grant from the Crown and in the existing Certificate of Title.

For further particulars and conditions of sale apply to Messrs. Macleod, Robertson, Smith & Co., Solicitors for the plaintiff, Canada Life Building, Calgary, Alberta, Refer to File No. 26865-WGE.

DATED at Calgary, Alberta, this 21st day of October 1922.

That was on July 25, at 2.00 o'clock. She went back at 3.20 and was admitted. She asked for Mary and Sam and Nick replied: "Mary is not in and Sam has gone away on the passenger train for 15 days." "Then," said the witness, "Sam Villa came out of a bedroom and shut the door."

Carmele Ferande also corroborated the testimony of Sylvia Lapresto. She accompanied Sylvia on her visit to the Joy home.

Mildred Ferande also corroborated the above testimony adding that Nick had endeavored to persuade her to change from a Catholic to the new religion. Here the girl described some of the tenets of the strange faith. She liked her own religion better than the new one. "I want to curl my hair and go to shows occasionally," she told the court.

Rosy Villa, wife of Sam Villa, the uncharged member of the accused trio, swore that Mrs. Joy told her Sam was dead. The night of July 25th her husband seemed agitated.

"What is the trouble," I asked, the witness testified.

"Something you can't know."

About 2 o'clock in the morning Mary Joy who was sleeping at the Villa home, told the witness' husband and cried.

"We have got to see my brother-in-law or he will die."

Her husband reluctantly acceded to her wish and they went out. On the return Mrs. Joy told him her brother-in-law will never come back. Witness said she saw a scar two or three weeks old on Mrs. Joy's forehead but confessed that it might have been a more recent wound.

Charge to Jury

Mr. Justice Walsh made an impressive charge to the jury in which he pointed out with admirable fairness and equity the salient points of evidence for and against the prisoner, held on the charge of manslaughter. The case was a puzzling and unusual one, the first he had heard under the section of the criminal code in all his career on the bench. The time of death was a very important point for the jury to weigh, said his lordship. His lordship made it very clear and emphatic, reiterating it later, that the Joys were not charged with murder but rather of slaying by neglect to provide the necessary medical aid to prolong life, while Sam Joy was himself helpless and in their charge.

After deliberating for an hour and 20 minutes, the jury brought in a verdict of guilty in both instances, with a recommendation for mercy in the case of the woman. Mrs. Joy was given a suspended sentence and Nick Joy was sentenced to one year in the Lethbridge goal.

In the case of P. Crowe, charged with killing a calf, the property of H. Jenkins, defendant was acquitted. J. W. McDonald for the Crown, C. F. Harris for the defendant.

Two Indians charged with house-breaking, theft and horse stealing were found guilty and sentenced to two years less one day. Another Indian charged as accomplice in above case, crown entered nolo pro and accused was discharged. Wm. Laurie, of Cardston, defended the Coutts Indian.

The case of the King vs. W. A. Graham was tried on the 18th before His Lordship Mr. Justice Walsh and a jury. The charge was one of perjury arising out of questions asked Graham on an investigation before Judge MacDonald, the District Court Judge on the 4th of April last. The investigation was on an application for an order to remove and sell certain goods and chattels included in a chattel mortgage made by Mary L. Graham in favour of Thomas Ellison of Claresholm. The question was asked "Did you sell a McCormick seeder, covered by a chattel mortgage, signed by Mary L. Graham in favour of Thomas Ellison of Claresholm?" and the answer was "No." The accused was also asked the same question in reference to harness for three horses and the answer was no.

The evidence disclosed the fact that Graham had sold harness for three horses in March, 1921, and also a McCormick seeder about the same time. The mortgage did not identify any kind of seeder as to make, kind or size and the harness was not proven to be complete nor described so as to identify them as being included in the mortgage. Counsel for the accused in scathing terms fell upon one witness who had sworn that the original question was: "Did you sell a McCormick shoe drill to Mr. Peter Arnstead of near Stavely?" after the same witness had sworn on the preliminary that the question was as in the information and charge, stated above. Counsel for the accused referred to the proceedings at different times and in different words as "this persecution." It appears that there have been a great deal of actions, legal steps between the parties for the past year and a great deal of ill-feeling was exhibited by some of the witnesses for the prosecution. The address of counsel for the defense was marked for its fighting spirit and aggressiveness. The jury returned a verdict of not guilty and the accused was discharged. John L. Fawcett, special counsel for the Crown; Jos. Hicks for the accused. There will be an action for damage for malicious prosecution so we are informed.

Don't forget to wear a poppy on Armistice Day, Saturday, November 11th.

RAVERY OF AMERICAN SAVES GIRL FROM THUG

The ability of the typical young American to meet any emergency that may arise is demonstrated in "The Black Bag," Herbert Rawlinson's latest Universal production.

which will be shown at the Empress theatre Friday and Saturday. As Billy Kirkwood, an energetic young business man, Rawlinson goes to New York in quest of a mildly exciting vacation. Fate had selected him to play an important part in a melodrama, leaving him to shape his own role. He plays his part well, not knowing what it's all about.

It all starts in a New York cafe where he meets an attractive young woman. She is trying to avoid a man following her. Kirkwood meets her again at a fashionable beach resort and their interest in each other increases. Then Kirkwood is told she has stolen a diamond necklace. Is he unwittingly aiding a criminal instead of protecting a defenseless girl?

This puts Billy in an embarrassing predicament because he has fallen in love with her. He can't forget that, even if she is a thief. He overpowers a burglar in her home and takes the necklace on his person. The working out of the story under the direction of Stuart Paton has been excellently done. The mystery is maintained until the very last. The film play is based on the novel of the same name by Louis Joseph Vance.

BRITISH ELECTION NOV. 15

London, Oct. 24.—Dissolution of the British parliament will take place next Thursday and the general elections will be held November 15. Announcement to this effect was made Monday by Premier Andrew Bonar Law, following his unanimous selection as leader of the Conservative party and his audience with the King in which he was accepted as premier of Great Britain, the first Canadian-born incumbent of that high office.

Premier Bonar Law today is expected to make public the personnel of his cabinet. It is believed that all the major selections already have been made and that titled personages are in the large majority.

Emilio Picariello and Florence Lassandro will face trial for the murder of Constable Lawson at a special sitting of the Supreme Court in Calgary on November 27, if the approval of the lieutenant-governor is secured.

November 27 was the date asked by A. A. McGillivray, crown counsel, in an application made several days ago before Mr. Justice Walsh. The application was granted and both Mr. Justice Walsh and Attorney-General Brownlee are awaiting the approval of Lieut.-Governor G. Brett.

Unless a special sitting is arranged for, Picariello and his alleged accomplice will not be brought to trial until the assizes in January.

leave Canada on the Montclare at the end of this month, and their many friends wish them a pleasant voyage

D. J. Grier answered a phone call from Brooks one day last week and found himself in conversation with H.
Campbell, now of Detroit, and formerly a school mate of Mr. Grier's at Warton, Ont. some 47 years ago. Mr.
Campbell, after the phone conversation, came over to Macleod and spent a day as the guest of Mr. and Mrs.
D. J. Grier.

The fire fighters had a run Tuesday morning at 6 a.m. to the frame stable just north of the Alberta Elevator.
The building was being used by George Skelding for stabling and storage and a large quantity of baled hay, and some oats. The origin of the fire is not yet known, but it began at the floor and worked up, destroying almost all the hay, and some oats, while the firemen were able to save the horses. The loss will be heavy with little or no insurance.

Ratepayers and their families, residents of the Lethbridge Northern irrigation district, had the privilege Wednesday last of seeing the last leg of the main canal completed, when the two draglines met in the big cut comprising the outlet of the Keho Lake reservoir. Forty-three automobile loads of men, women and children made the tour of the system.
The excursion and picnic was sponsored by the board of trustees.
The picnic was an eye-opener to the ratepayers themselves. They had read of the big ditch, had seen portions of it, but few there were who had followed its course from the headworks to the Keho Lake storage reservoir. This opportunity was afforded them Wednesday. The excursion was a pronounced success the day being warm and calm, and the crowd representative. Divisional Engineer Sauder was in charge of the party, explaining the various links in the main ditch.

A WORLD'S WONDER

Publishers of Europe and America have expressed surprise that a paper of such wonderful value as the Family

Herald and Weekly Star of Montreal can be produced at the subscription price charged. It is not only the enormous size of the Family Herald that excites the wonder of the world, it is the vast variety and the super-excellence of its contents. The great success of the Family Herald of Montreal has resulted in securing for it the very best talent in all its departments.
This is a measure of its progressiveness. To say that the Family Herald is in a class by itself without a rival is to put it mildly. The publishers we understand will send sample copies free on receipt of postal card.
